

South Carolina Public Health Association Young Professional Network Volunteer Opportunities Positions:

1. Marketing Coordinator – South Carolina Public Health Association Young Professionals Network (SCPHA-YPN)

Are you passionate about public health and love getting the word out? Want to help shape the future of health in South Carolina while having a blast doing it? Join us as the Marketing Coordinator for the South Carolina Public Health Association's Young Professionals Network!

What You'll Do:

As Marketing Coordinator, you'll be the creative engine behind how we show up in the world! You'll lead the charge on all things marketing—social media, newsletters, graphics, campaigns, and more—making sure our message reaches young professionals across South Carolina. You'll help us tell the story of who we are, what we do, and why new and emerging public health professionals should get involved.

This is your chance to build real-world marketing experience, network with leaders in public health, and actually see your work make an impact in your community.

Your Mission (Should You Choose to Accept It):

- Develop and manage fun, eye-catching content for social media and email newsletters
- Promote events, initiatives, and resources tailored for early-career public health professionals
- Craft creative strategies to increase visibility of the SCYP Network across South Carolina
- Collaborate with a team of passionate, like-minded peers
- Bring fresh ideas and positive energy to every project!

Why You'll Love It:

- Great for resumes + portfolios
- Flexible schedule — work from wherever, whenever
- Meet awesome people doing inspiring work in public health
- Make a real difference in shaping how young professionals connect and grow

Whether you're just starting your public health journey or bringing creative flair from another field, this is a fantastic way to get involved, give back, and grow.

2. Advancement Coordinator – South Carolina Public Health Association Young Professionals Network (SCPHA- YPN)

Are you a natural connector, idea-generator, or someone who sees possibility everywhere? Do you get excited about the words “grants,” “funding,” or “growing impact”? Then the Advancement Coordinator role with the South Carolina Public Health Association’s Young Professionals Network is calling your name!

What You'll Do:

As Advancement Coordinator, you'll play a key role in helping us level up. You'll lead efforts in fundraising, researching local grant opportunities, building community partnerships, and brainstorming ways we can sustainably grow our reach and resources. This is about making sure the SCYP Network continues to thrive—and expand its impact for new and emerging public health professionals across South Carolina.

This is your chance to flex your strategic side, build experience in nonprofit development, and help shape the future of our network.

Your Mission (If You're Up for the Challenge):

- Identify and research local grants and funding opportunities
- Assist with donor outreach and creative fundraising campaigns
- Explore partnerships with local orgs, schools, and businesses
- Develop strategies to sustain and expand YPN Network programs
- Collaborate closely with passionate peers on the leadership team

Why You'll Love It:

- Gain valuable skills in fundraising, grant writing, and nonprofit growth
- Great resume-builder for public health, nonprofit, or business careers
- Flexible hours — contribute on your own time
- Be a key player in helping young professionals grow and connect statewide

Whether you're a future public health leader, nonprofit pro, or just someone who loves making ideas happen—this is a fun, strategic, and meaningful way to get involved.

3. Morale Coordinator – South Carolina Public Health Association Young Professionals Network (SCPHA-YPN)

Are you the person who brings good vibes to every room? Do you love celebrating others, lifting spirits, and making people feel like they belong? If so, the Morale Coordinator role with the South Carolina Public Health Association’s Young Professionals Network is made just for you!

What You'll Do:

As Morale Coordinator, you'll be the heart of our network—the one who keeps the energy high, the team connected, and the fun flowing. From shoutouts and spotlight features to planning virtual hangouts or wellness check-ins, your role is all about making sure SCYP feels like a true community.

This is your chance to build community, boost engagement, and make being part of the network something people look forward to.

Your Mission (And It's a Fun One!):

- Plan creative ways to celebrate members (birthdays, wins, milestones)
- Keep the team motivated with check-ins, encouragement, and occasional surprises
- Organize casual meetups or virtual socials to keep the vibes strong
- Create a welcoming, inclusive atmosphere for all young professionals
- Bring the fun, creativity, and positive energy to everything you do!

Why You'll Love It:

- Help create meaningful connections across the network
- Use your creativity to build a sense of community and belonging
- Flexible schedule and freedom to bring your ideas to life
- Make public health more fun and human for those just starting out

Whether you're a natural cheerleader, a mental health advocate, or just love creating joy—you'll thrive in this role and make a real difference in how young professionals experience YPN.

4. Finance Coordinator – South Carolina Young Professionals Network (SCYP Network)

Are spreadsheets your happy place? Do you love making budgets make sense and helping a team stay on track financially? Join us as the Finance Coordinator for the South Carolina Public Health Association's Young Professionals Network!

What You'll Do:

As Finance Coordinator, you'll be the go-to person for all things money-related—helping us stay organized, transparent, and sustainable. From tracking expenses and supporting fundraising efforts to budgeting for events and initiatives, you'll make sure our financial foundation is strong so we can keep growing and thriving.

It's the perfect opportunity to gain hands-on experience in nonprofit finance and help power a network that's supporting the next generation of public health professionals.

Your Mission:

- Maintain basic records of income and expenses for YPN activities
- Help create simple budgets for events, projects, and fundraising initiatives
- Support fundraising and grant teams with financial documentation
- Work closely with the Advancement Coordinator and leadership team
- Ensure financial transparency and good stewardship of resources

Why You'll Love It:

- Build valuable experience in nonprofit financial management
- Great for resumes in public health, nonprofit work, or finance careers
- Flexible, remote, and low-commitment but high-impact
- Help drive real, meaningful work supporting young professionals statewide

Whether you're detail-oriented, finance-curious, or just love keeping things organized—this role gives you the chance to grow your skills and support a network that's making a difference.
